Touseef Khan
00021906
Sunday 2 to 5pm

Day 4 - Building Dynamic Frontend Components – Furniture Decor Delights

1. Product Listing Page

This page shows all the products available on the website. You can see details or add items to your cart. The products appear in a clean grid layout with images and basic information.
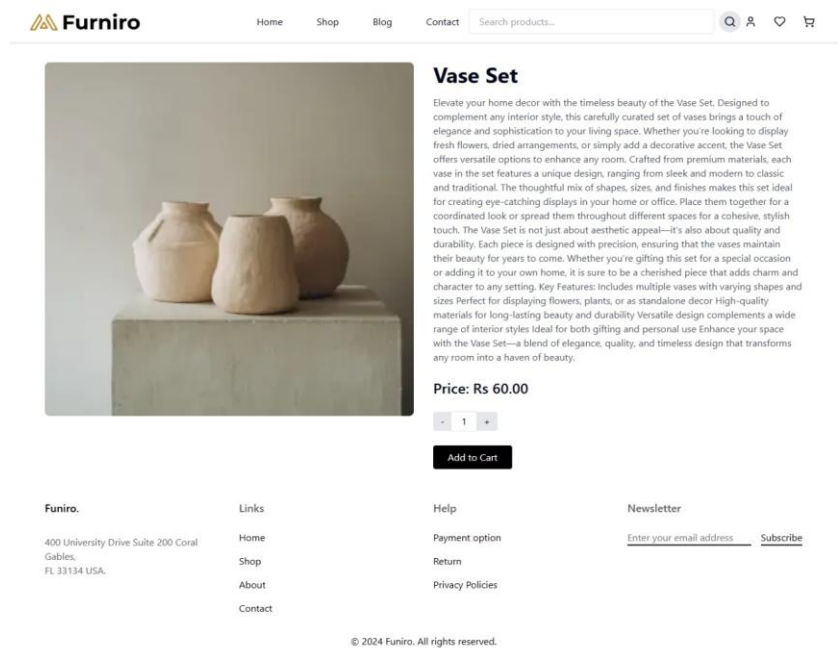

Images for Product Listing Page (Screenshot)

Touseef Khan
00021906
Sunday 2 to 5pm

2. Product Detail Page

The product detail page opens based on the product you choose. It shows more information about the product, like its title, description, price, quantity options, and an "Add to Cart" button. This helps users decide if they want to buy the product.
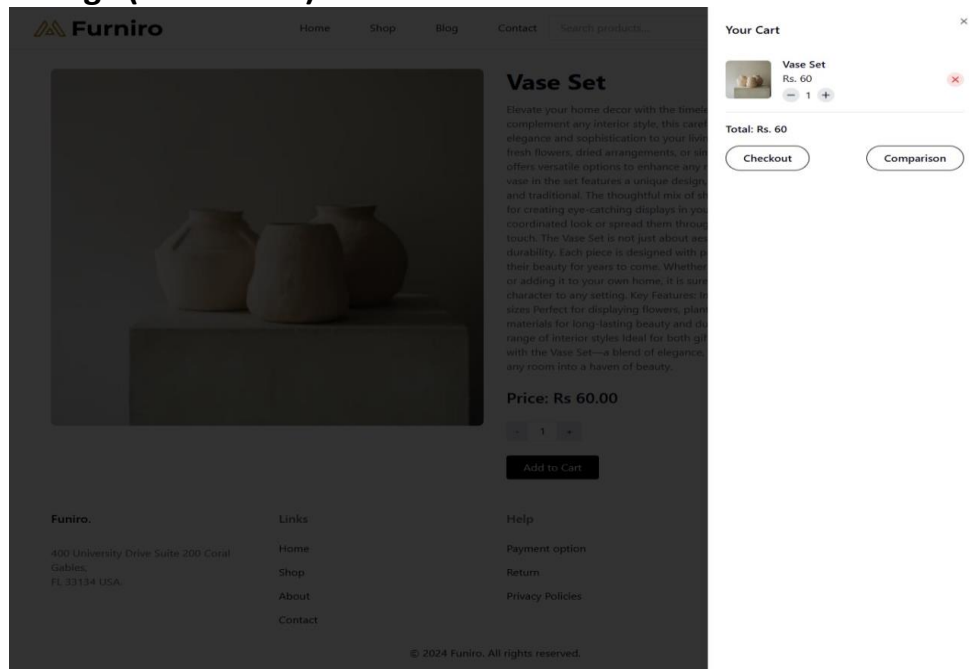

Images for Product Detail Page (Screenshot)

3. Cart Page

The cart page shows the products a user has added to their cart. It allows for viewing, editing the quantity, and removing products. The page also includes an option to proceed to checkout.
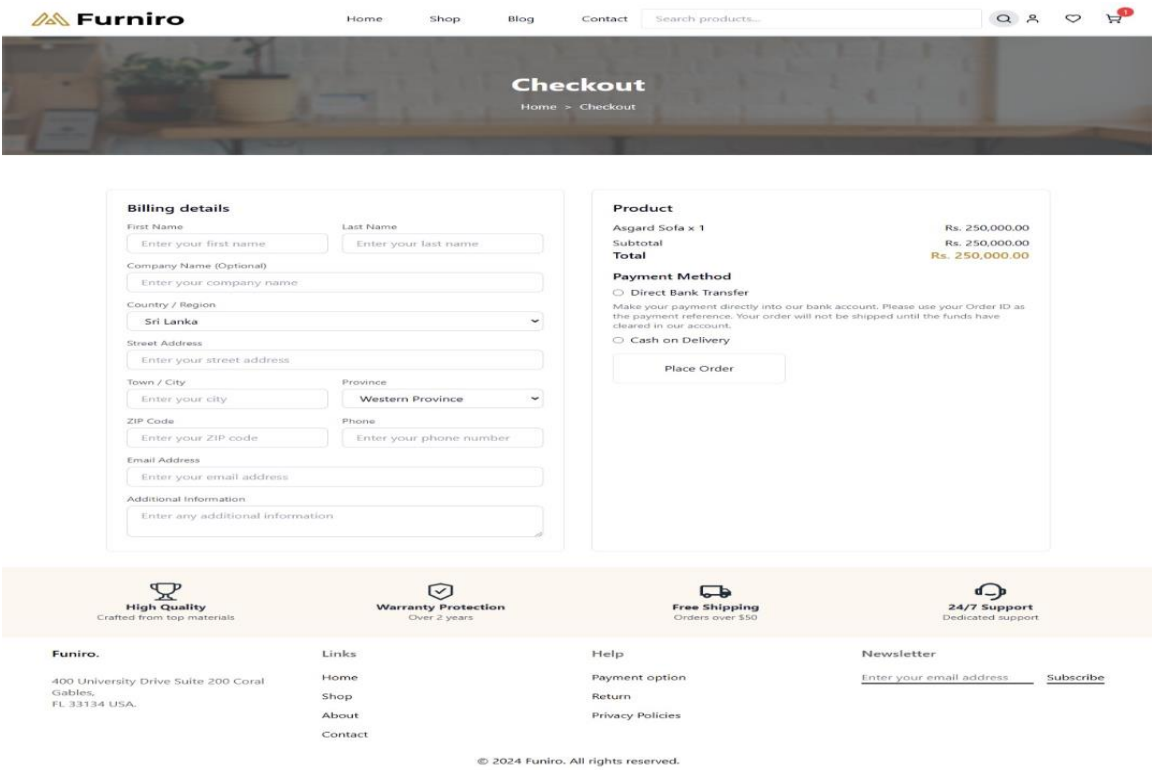

Images for Cart Page (Screenshot)

Touseef Khan
00021906
Sunday 2 to 5pm

4.   Checkout Page

This page lets the user enter their shipping and payment details to finish the purchase. It shows a summary of the order and has a button to confirm the order.
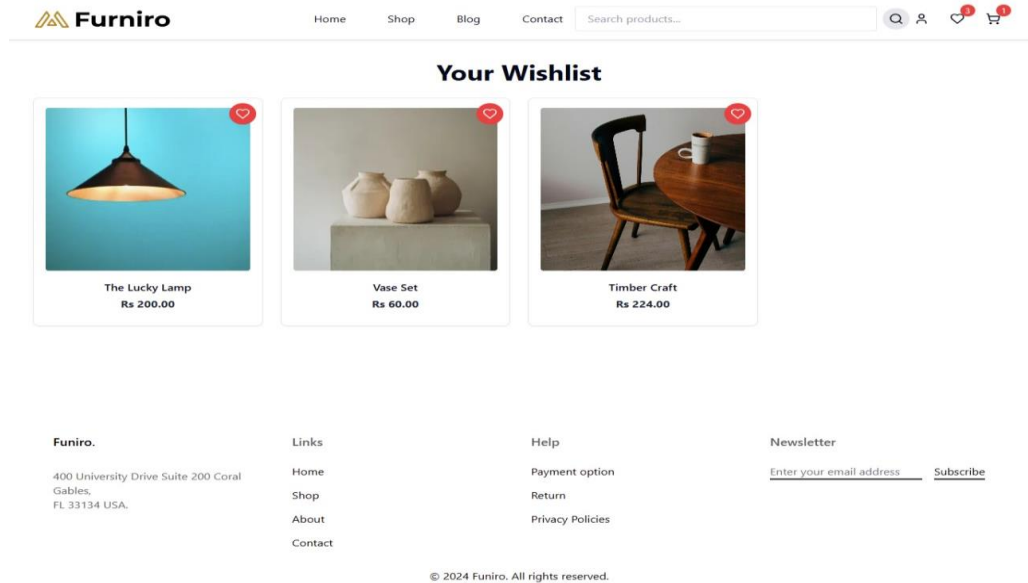

Images for Checkout Page (Screenshot)

5.   Wishlist Page

The wishlist page shows the products that the user has added to their wishlist. Each item displays the title and an image. Users can add or remove products, and the page is easily accessible from the header.

Images for Wishlist Page (screenshot)

Touseef Khan
00021906
Sunday 2 to 5pm

6. Search Bar Page

This page has a search bar where users can type in their queries. The search results page shows products that match the keywords entered. Clicking on a product takes users to the product detail page.

Images for Search Bar Page (Screenshot)

Checklist for Day 4

- ✓ Frontend Component Development
- ✓ Styling and Responsiveness
- ✓ Code Quality
- ✓ Documentation and Submission

Final Review:

- ✓ Completed